

Preparing For Christ's Return by Jim Harman

When Jesus came the first time, He established his Church and in his Sermon on the Mount he taught how the Kingdom of God can be manifested today in the lives of believers' hearts. When He returns again, He will bring with Him all overcoming believers (Rev 17:14) to defeat Satan and all of his evil cohorts and to rule and reign with His faithful followers during the Millennium.

A central message in the book of Revelation is that God is calling all believers to be genuine overcomers. This message has been obscured from most in the Church because the book of Revelation is often thought to be too difficult to comprehend for the average believer. All the many signs, symbols and metaphors used throughout John's extraordinary vision have cloaked this vital message. As a result, most pastors, teachers and believers miss this central theme or avoid the book entirely.

Being a true overcomer is what being a Christian is all about. Learning to be an overcomer is perhaps the most difficult thing to do. Through the trials of this life, the overcomer's faith is put on trial and thereby confirmed as evidence before a mighty God, it is authentic.

The purpose of this writing is to encourage people to embrace him as the King of their heart and allow his life to reign in theirs. He wants us to be able to overcome by his mighty power and strength living inside of us just as He overcame for all of us. Jesus will be looking for a faithful remnant qualified to rule and reign with him when he returns. My latest writing will help you prepare to be the overcomer Jesus will be looking for.

Calling All Overcomers is more than the title to this new book. For all those who know Jesus Christ as their Savior, it is the personal call from God's own heart. God is promising incredible blessings to those who will heed this important call.
