

HERESY or GENUINE TRUTH – Read This Book and Discover For Yourself

Some contend that my teaching on the 70 weeks of Daniel is heresy. Let's see were the real heresy lies.

A heretic is someone who teaches an opinion that is profoundly at odds with what is generally accepted. From the time of the early church, Daniel's 70 Week Prophecy has applied to Jesus Christ being the one to fulfill the prophecy. This was known as the Messianic view and was considered the accepted doctrine from the time of Jerome down through the centuries. The following are some of the prominent expositors of God's Word who taught that the Seventy Weeks of Daniel applied to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and not the Antichrist:

Albert Barnes, B.H. Carroll, Ian M. Duguid, A.R. Fausset, Sinclair B. Ferguson, Curtis Hahn, Matthew Henry, E.W. Hengstenberg, Clarence H. Hewitt, Saint Jerome, Philip Mauro, Sir Isaac Newton, J.E.H. Thomson, John Urquhart, Ralph Woodrow and Edward J. Young.

Then in the late 1800's a new contemporary interpretation surfaced, which has captivated the masses with a new "tradition" that has become the modern church dogma of today.

My original view of eschatology was firmly indoctrinated into believing this new tradition. Being a CPA, I was fascinated by the precision Sir Robert Anderson created in his book The Coming Prince, which is considered the standard volume in the field and followed by most in today's church.

In Appendix 1, I illustrate how Anderson's interpretation inserted the Antichrist in Daniel 9:27, instead of Jesus Christ as explained in the book. This changed the entire meaning of Daniel's magnificent vision and distorts the true significance of this important prophecy. In Appendix 4, I give a detailed explanation of how Sir Robert Anderson made three critical errors.

So instead of being about the wonderful story of how God sent His Son to provide Israel an extended period of grace over a period of 490 years, the prophecy has become a fabricated tale about the Antichrist coming to make a "7 year" peace treaty! This story has become the modern staple for the church today; blinding everyone from seeing the beautiful story Daniel was given.

Those who will approach this subject with an open mind and a teachable heart will discover that the traditional teaching in the Church today is really at odds with what was taught from the time of the early church. The real heresy came about in the late 1800's and has replaced the genuine truth that was taught from the time of the early Church.

"Given sufficient time, cherished traditions become dogmatic beliefs." Amaury De Reincourt

"The only defense against false teaching is truth...(and) false doctrine is like a disease germ; it sets up a mental block to truth. A person once infected is very difficult to reach. It seems as if one simply cannot get through to him." Arthur Bloomfield
