The decree by Sultan Suleiman I in AD 1537 that everyone missed on the plaza of the Temple Mount (the full translation is quoted in the book).

... IT WILL BE BUILT AGAIN WITH PLAZA AND MOAT... (DANIEL 9:25)

Daniel 9:25 mentions two specific structures that would be restored, a plaza and a moat. Scholars have often wondered what this meant. Now we know...

Stone decrees currently exist at both a moat (around the citadel of David inside the Old City) and in the plaza of the Temple Mount (at the Sabil Bab el Atm—the fountain near the Gate of Darkness), which were both placed there when those structures were restored.

These decrees establish a SECOND countdown of Seventy Sevens. The first counted from 458 BC and marked the beginning of Jesus' ministry in AD 27 and his death on the cross and resurrection in AD 33. The second countdown, which started in AD 1537, can logically be associated with Christ's second coming.
