ABOUT THE AUTHOR JAMES HARMAN

Jim has been a Christian for more than 47 years and has diligently studied the Word of God with a particular emphasis on Prophecy. Prophecy Countdown began back in 1989 when he and his wife Cindy produced a monthly newsletter designed to help prepare the Bride of Christ for the return of our wonderful Bridegroom. All of their newsletters and books are written to encourage believers in Christ to know the joy of Christ's triumph in their life as they become true overcomers, qualified and ready to rule and reign with Christ in the coming Kingdom.

His first book was The Blessed Hope in 1989 followed by The Coming Spiritual Earthquake in 1992. Both books were widely distributed across the United States and around the world as his early ministry included appearances on numerous radio and television programs across America.

 His professional background included a successful career as both a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and a Certified Property Manager (CPM) and he had experience in both public accounting and financial management with several well-known regional and national firms.

In 1996, at Ray Brubaker's famous International Prophecy Conference, he shared the message of our Lord's return for his bride, and he was honored to share the stage with some of the leading prophecy scholars and teachers of our day (Jack Van Impe, Tim LaHaye, Grant Jeffrey, J.R. Church, Perry Stone, David Breese, Peter Lalonde, and Joe Van Koevering).

After a tragic accident to his daughter in 2000 he was forced to take a break from the ministry. In 2007, he resumed the work the Lord gave him; restarting their website and writing again as the Lord led. While he has authored fourteen books, his most successful title has been Daniel's Prophecies Unsealed. He believes that God called him to write his most important book on the Salvation of the Soul, which was devised to help every believer get prepared for the moment when they stand before Christ at His judgment seat (2 Corinthians 5:10-11).

Jim Harman Wants Every Believer

"Well Done, Good and Faithful Servant..
Enter into the Joy of your Lord"

OTHER THAN THE BIBLE, SALVATION OF THE SOUL MAY BE THE MOST IMPORTANT BOOK YOU WILL EVER READ

The salvation of the soul is probably one of the most misunderstood concepts in the Church today. Most people think that the salvation of the spirit and the salvation of the soul are the same thing even though the Scriptures tell us something different.

When Jesus returns, He will review all of our lives to determine whether we have been faithful and obedient doers of His Word.

The purpose of this timely book is to help believers examine their life and assist them in becoming faithful overcomers who will be qualified to rule and reign with Christ in the coming Kingdom. After we have experienced the salvation of our spirit, it is imperative that we allow the Word of God to sanctify us completely in order to realize the salvation of our soul:

Now may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely; and may your whole spirit, soul and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (1 Thessalonians 5:23)

This book will prepare you so Christ will say: "Well done.." at His judgment seat.

10) For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. 11) Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men (2 Corinthians 5:10-11)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

How did you come about writing this book?

In the fall of 2017, I was fortunate to visit the land of Israel with Pastor Jim Henry's final tour of the Holy Lands, and I was blessed to walk many of the places where our Lord carried out His ministry. When we visited the traditional site for the Sermon on the Mount, Pastor Henry had everyone in our group read one verse from this famous sermon. When it came to my turn, I read the following: "Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect" (Mat 5:48).

Oswald Chambers explains this passage concisely: "The perfection of verse 48 refers to the disposition of God in me - "Ye shall be perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect (R.V.) not in a future state, but - You shall be perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect if you let Me work that perfection in you. If the Holy Spirit has transformed you on the inside, you will exhibit not good characteristics, but divine characteristics in a human being (Chambers, p. 40)

The past several years the Lord has been showing me what this really means. The faith Jesus desires His disciples to realize is mature and complete, reflecting the heavenly Father's character, which embodies holiness and love.

You aren't telling me that you expect to be perfect, are you?

No, while we will never be as perfect as God the Father during our current pilgrimage, Jesus was exhorting His disciples to strive to be godlike in character and actions. While perfection is not something we will obtain in this life, He wants us to rely on His presence in our lives. This book will show the reader how this can be accomplished.

WHAT READERS ARE SAYING

Jim Harman's work on the salvation of the soul is greatly needed and his burden for "souls" is evident. This book, in a concise manner, shows the believer how their soul can be saved. Jim explains how salvation of the soul is only applicable to believers and is a product of sanctification. He rightly divides the gift of God, which is absent from works, and the reward of God, which is according to works. His focus upon on the Word of God is refreshing. His willingness to let the Word speak is brave. So many preach what they have always been taught or understood and are unwilling to examine the potential that what they have been taught is wrong. Not so with Jim's book Salvation of the Soul. Jim brings great light on this many times wrongly understood subject.

Most believers never learn the critical distinction between salvation of the spirit unto eternal life and salvation of the soul (sanctification) unto reward. Jim Harman clearly distinguishes between the two in his excellent volume, Salvation of the Soul. Understanding this truth is indispensable for preparing to meet Jesus at the Judgment Seat of Christ. I am so thankful for Brother Harman's excellent resource that rightly divides the Scriptures.

Having just read Jim Harman's Salvation of the Soul, I find it to be one of the most provocative and thoughtful presentations I have ever read on the distinctive differences of soul and spirit salvation. I highly commend it for personal study and edification. You will be blessed.

Jim Henry – Pastor Emeritus
First Baptist Orlando, Orlando, FL

Salvation of the Soul needs to be read by every Christian. Few in the body of Christ are aware of the important truths that are shared in this book. Whether you act on the exhortative teaching will determine whether you rule and reign with Jesus or whether you suffer loss at the Judgment Seat of Christ.

Like you, I believe that, as Christians, everything we do down here on earth has a direct bearing on our capacity for joy, worship and service in heaven. I certainly don't want to "waste my sufferings" here on earth but use them as a platform for bringing more glory to God on that wonderful Day I'll stand before Christ. "

"When I was in grade school, I couldn't imagine why anyone would want to name their town 'Babylon.' Aside from biblical Babylon, there is another town with this name: Babylon N.Y. It's located 60 miles east of N.Y.C. I grew up in North Babylon, N.Y. For years I would look at the prophecy of 'Babylon' and its destruction, thinking about N.Y.C., Rome, and the ancient city of Babylon. I now understand clearly, from your book, that 'Babylon' is the only way the bible could have described America and the symbol of America: N.Y.C."
